

Workshop

Rethinking the governance of European water protection

Venue: UFZ Leipzig

Date: January 8-9, 2019

Organizers:

Nadine Schröder (Leuphana University Lüneburg)

Barbara Schröter (Leibniz Centre for Agricultural Landscape Research (ZALF))

Frank Hüesker (UFZ Leipzig)

Preliminary Program

In advance of the workshop, we ask each participant to write a one or two pager about what he or she considers the most important/urgent problems of European Water Governance and suggests how to address these.

Tuesday, January 8

12:00	Arrival – Lunch
13:00	Keynote "European water-related policies: implementation obstacles and options for a new momentum" Martin Pusch (IGB)
14:00	Introduction Round
14:30	2 Parallel Panels with 10min-Presentations on current research
16:00	Coffee-Break
16:30	Summary (we) of 2-pagers from participants and discussion
17:30	Break for changing rooms
17:45	3 Parallel Panels with 10min-Presentations on current research
19:45	Dinner and informal part

Wednesday, January 9

08:30	Start
09:00	Presentation of State of the art review on comparative water governance
09:30	Summary of Working Groups on questions and hot debates
10:00	Forming working groups for joint outputs
10:30	Coffee-Break
11:00	Working Groups to plan joint outputs
12:00	Lunch break
13:00	continued Working Groups to plan joint outputs
15:00	In plenary: Summary of Working Groups on joint outputs
16:00	Outlook & Round of Feedback and Suggestions for further activities
17:00	Departure or informal dinner for interested participants